NOTIFICATIONS.

Port St. George, February 25, 1931
(G.O. No. 25, 1931, Public.)

No. 36—In G.O. No. 425, Public, dated 28th March 1929, the Government laid down that candidates who have passed the old General Judicial Test, lower grade, or the new General Judicial Test, will not be required to pass the lower portion of the Jull test and that those who have passed the old General test (higher or lower grade) or the new General test will not be required to pass the Jull test. The Inspector-General of Prisons now points out that in the Jull test of the Jull Medal candidates who have passed in any of the subjects included in the Jull test by passing the General Judicial Test at the General Test or both are required to pass only in those remaining subjects which they have not already taken. He, therefore, suggests that persons who are required to qualify themselves by the Jull test should not be required to have passed the lower part of that test by reason of their having passed the General Judicial Test mentioned above unless they obtain a pass in the paper on the 'Laws, rules, regulations and orders relating to jails' included in that part. The Inspector-General considers that though the General Freehold Fund Rules which is one of the subjects included in the Jull test of the Jull Medal is not included among the subjects for testing the General Test, a candidate who obtains a pass in the Jull test need not be required to pass in the General Freehold Fund Rules in order to qualify himself for the Jull test. The Government accept the above suggestion.

1. The Government propose a fix of Rs. 2 (two rupees) for admission to the examination in the paper on 'Laws, rules, regulations and orders relating to jails', included in the lower part of the Jull test. The maximum number of marks for a pass in that paper will be two-fifths of the maximum. No candidates will be granted a second candidature but their names will be published in the Port St. George Gazette.

2. The following consequential amendments will be made to the printed list of examinations published in Supplement No. 125, Public, dated 28th May 1929, at pages 404-409 of Part I of the Port St. George Gazette, dated 28th May 1929, as subsequently amended:—

(a) For the first sentence in the paragraph entitled 'Laws' under 'Jull test' in the schedule showing the officers or appointments for which the examinations are specially prescribed, substitute the following:—

"Candidates who have passed the old General Judicial Test, lower grade, or the new General Judicial Test will not be required to appear for the lower part of the Jull test."

(b) Add the following at the end of the Jull test, in Article 4:—

"Candidates who have passed the old General Judicial Test, lower grade, or the new General Judicial Test and who wish to qualify themselves for the lower part of the Jull test will appear only for the paper 'Laws, rules, regulations and orders relating to jails' in that part."

(c) Add the following in the last sub-paragraph in Article 10:—

"If the paper on 'Laws, rules, regulations and orders relating to jails' included in the lower part of the Jull test is taken alone, two-fifths of the maximum for that paper."

(d) Insert the following between the words 'Law part' and the word 'in' in each of the Articles 12 and 13:

"or the paper on the 'Laws, rules, regulations and orders relating to jails' included in that part."

(e) Add the following in clause (d) in Article 25:

"8 (d). The paper on 'Laws, rules, regulations and orders relating to jails', Rs. 2."

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY DEPARTMENT.

L.A. BILL OF 1914.

[An introduction by the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.]

A Bill to Supplement the Bengal Criminal Law Amendment Act, 1910.

WHEREAS it is expedient to supplement the Bengal Criminal Law Amendment Act, 1910; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

1. This Act may be called the Bengal Criminal Law Amendment (supplementary) Act, 1914.

2. The power of the Local Government under sub-section (2) of Power to alter referred to in the said Act, to direct by order in writing that any person shall be committed to custody in jail shall be deemed to include a power to direct, by order in writing made with the concurrence of the Government General in Council, that such person shall be permitted to custody in any jail in British India; and, for all or any of the purposes of the local Act, no order or order shall be deemed to be an order made under section 2 of that Act, and all the provisions of that Act shall apply accordingly.

Provided that the powers exercisable by the Local Government under section 11 of the local Act in respect of any person committed to custody in a jail outside Bengal, and under section 12 of that Act to provide for the removal of custody of any such person, shall be exercised by the Local Government of the province in which the person is committed, and rules made by such Local Government in exercise of such powers shall be published in the local official Gazette.

- Construction. 3. References to the local Act in sections 14 and 15 of that Act shall be deemed also to be references to the local Act as supplemented by this Act.
- In its legal proceedings. 4. The powers conferred by section 401 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1873, shall not be exercised in respect of any person arrested, committed to or detained in custody, under the local Act or the local Act as supplemented by this Act.
- Repeals. 5. Sections 4, 5 and 6 of the Bengal Criminal Law Amendment (Supplementary) Act, 1923, are hereby repealed.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The Bengal Criminal Law Amendment (Supplementary) Act, 1923, supplemented the Bengal Criminal Law Amendment Act, 1919, in articles wherein which were beyond the competence of the local legislatures. These provisions of the local Act of 1919 which related to the appointment of Commissioners for the trial of certain offences were continued for a further period of five years by the Bengal Criminal Law Amendment (Part Continuance) Act, 1926 (Bengal Act XII of 1926), passed by the Bengal Legislative Council in March, 1926. Section 2 of the Supplementary Act of 1923 which provides for appeals to, and confirmation of sentences of death by the High Court accordingly continued to be operative.

With the approval of the Government of India, the Bengal Government did not propose the continuance of these provisions of the local Act of 1923 which conferred certain powers of arrest and detention, and, with the lapse of those powers, sections 4, 5 and 6 of the Supplementary Act of 1923 ceased to be in force. Subsequently, the maintenance of law and order, and in particular the security of Chittagong, necessitated the promulgation of an Ordinance by the Governor-General (Ordinance I of 1926) which restored the powers of arrest and detention, and the Ordinance was in due course replaced by the Bengal Criminal Law Amendment Act, 1926 (Bengal Act VI of 1926), which was passed by the Bengal Legislative Council in August 1926, and which continued for a period of five years the powers which had been conferred by the Ordinance.

2. The object of the present Bill is to amend sections 4, 5 and 6 of the Supplementary Act of 1923 and thus to implement the provisions against the continuance of sentences of death in Bengal and the regulation of suspension in this act.

3. Clause 2 of the Bill empowers the Local Government, with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council, to make an order providing to extend in a full or partial manner any period specified when an order under sub-section (1) of section 2 of the Land Act might be made.

4. Clause 3 removes the extension of section 14 of the Land Act to anything which may be done under clause 2 of the Bill; and also places it beyond doubt that clauses 2 and 4 never extend when under sub-section 1 of 1924.

5. Clause 4 of the Bill, on the analogy of section 494 (2) of the Criminal Procedure Code, 1908, has jurisdiction under the power conferred by this section.

6. In order to avoid confusion, clause 6 of the Bill formally repeals the corresponding provisions of the Supplementary Act of 1925 which are no longer operative.
